10% off ALL waxes in March!

Happy Spring!

From the editor:

Just a quick word to let you know about the arrival of the new block waxes from Arts Encaustic and a newly scheduled series of classes at Leir House in April.

I also have included the course schedule & dates of the Circle Meetings again. There are still a few places open for the Friday Workshops. These are a great way to progress in Encaustic Art and generally fun!

If you know anybody who would like to get some "hands-on" experience in Encaustic tell them about the Teaser Workshop on March 22 at Leir House.

Happy waxing!
Thea

P.S. Please note the special offer on waxes this month.

New waxes arrived!

Finally the beautiful Encaustic wax blocks from Arts Encaustic have arrived from Holland. At Customs they were so puzzled at the boxes that they declared them to be cigarettes!

Now of course we all know that Encaustic is addictive, but we don't want to pay extra duty on our waxes.....Hope to sort that one out soon!

The blocks cost $2.50 a piece, $2.25 during the month of March.

Teaser Workshop March 22nd.

Surely you had many family members or friends marvel at your Encaustic artwork.

Now you can tell them to visit the Teaser Workshop on March 22nd at Leir House and have a go themselves (so you do not have to share your iron and waxes...).

It is a drop-in affair from 2 – 4 PM. Costs $10.00.

No registration required for this one.

Black Encaustic paper on its way!

I have ordered black painting card from my Dutch supplier and it should ship out this week.

Prices will range from $0.25 (10 x 15 cm) to $ 2.95 (ca. 30 x 42 cm)

Paper from Print Three

Some of you have already tested the paper "House Gloss" from Print Three at 265 Main Street.

This paper is a very good buy and highly recommendable.

Hopefully they can keep enough on stock for us!
